CSD Student Organizations

National Student Speech-Language and Hearing Association (NSSLHA). This organization informs its members (CSD majors and minors) about CSD related events and important information going on here at OHIO and outside the university.

Ohio University American Sign Language Club. This club wishes to promote a relaxed and conductive environment which enables members to be introduced to or expand on their knowledge of ASL and Deaf culture, all while bridging the gap between the deaf and hearing communities.

Student Academy of Audiology (SAA). This organization, created by graduate students serves to assist those interested in the field of audiology and community awareness through philanthropic, social, and educational events.

Creative Expressions
This faculty supported, student run organization dedicates time and effort to working with children within the Athens community schools through the Arts and inclusion.

Aging Gerontological Education Society (A.G.E.S.) This organization is open to all students who are interested in learning about and working with the older population. Students have the opportunity to participate in community events that benefit local seniors and attend a state-wide conference.
