

Week Five in Salzburg! (SP 2007)

Tuesday: Stammtisch in Sternbräu, Some students met their conversations partners from the University of Salzburg here

Wednesday: Tour of churches in the Old City and the New City, led by instructor Bernhard Lochmann

Why is the cathedral an example of early Baroque?

Baroque theatricality on/with the church façade !

In front of the Franziskaner Monastery: how did the monks here resist the National Socialists in 1938?

Inside the Franziskanerkirche: how did the different architectural styles create a different experience?

Langerhof: This lion (lion?) is out of place. Where did he once belong?

New City: Steingasse

Today, this is the site of one of the best cinemas in Austria.

It once was a place that probably stunk a lot in the Middle Ages. Why?

Lots of Romans also rode on this street, and two American GIs had some trouble here.

Linzergasse: an important spot :)

St. Sebastian's Cemetery: Who's buried here?

The Hexenturm (or what's left of it): Lindsey and Rob report on one of the darker moments in Salzburg's history

Final destination: Steinterasse

Don't forget to check out the audio newsletters!

Newsletter 3: Diana and Lindsey

Newsletter 4: Kevin and Rob