

Week Six in Salzburg (SP 2007)

Tuesday: Trip to the Pinzgau district of Land Salzburg

On the bus

At the Eggerhof - an organic farm / bed+breakfast (More information: http://www.eggerhof.info/start1_slide.swf)

Milking equipment

buying that leather bag.

Lauren's new friend makes her regret

High-tech cows

Speck, cheese, bread, and butter from the farm

Going up is not as easy, or as much fun, as going down

On the way to the Kitzsteinhorn mountain (<http://www.kitzsteinhorn.at/>)

Lunch at 3029 Meters

The Seisenbergklamm - Gorge (<http://www.naturgewalten.at/>)

Wild Bobcats in the wilderness

Wednesday: Stammtisch - Zirkelwirt

Weekend: Excursion to Cologne, Germany

On the train, along the Rhine River

OU- Salzburg Program Students meet their penpals from the Königin Luise Schule in Cologne

Trivia-Quiz: OU remains undefeated

Nick gives Irfahn a hand

City Tour

Cologne's Roman past

Museum Ludwig

Some uncomfortable facts about Ford

The Rhine and the Hohenzollern Bridge

Hanseatic traces

Two comic figures from Cologne

Monuments to famous figures from Cologne's past, including Friedrich Spee and Katharina Henot

Levels of Cologne's past

In front of the Cologne Cathedral - spitze(n)!

The bones of the Magi, maybe.

Saying goodbye to the penpals.

On the way home - thinking of Salzburg (See final picture of Week 3 for appropriate cinematic reference)