

Salzburg 2009: Week 6

Tour of the churches in the Altstadt (old city) led by history/art history instructor and artist Bernhard Lochmann

What lies beneath the Residenzplatz?

One of the last remnants of the romanesque church

The foundations of earlier churches

Inside the Dom (cathedral)

Looking for the hand on the romanesque portal of the Franziskaner church

The romanesque lion

Stylistic mixtures in the Franziskaner church

The lion from an earlier cathedral

In front of the law department of the University of Salzburg

Sala Terrena: one the few examples of Renaissance in Salzburg

Haffnergasse: the old city hall (Rathaus) in the background

In front of Fischer von Erlachs Kollegienkirche, a church that doesn't belong to the church

Inside the Kollegienkirche - unfortunately it's being renovated

After the tour: a much deserved break

Stammtisch at Gasthof Überfuhr

Sunset and the Hohensalzburg fortress
