Salzburg 2009: Week 7
In class: "Ich werde ein Hund für dich!"

City tour on Wednesday:
Einmal Löwe immer Löwe - at the Heckentheater
Wednesday night: Viewing a performance of Arthur Schnitzler's Reigen
Thursday: Potluck dinner at Europa Kolleg
Friday: Vienna Excursion: first stop, the former concentration camp in Mauthausen
The former quarry in Mauthausen
In Vienna students made short presentations about major sites
Shawn and the Stefansdom
We bumped into Ryan S. (a former participant - 2006) and he had to give an impromptu explanation of the Stock im Eisen
Chris and the Plague Column, Sunni at the Jugendstil Anker clock
And, of course, a stop at the ice cream store!
Harrison at the Holocaust monument
Andrea at Cafe Central, Owen at the Votiv Church

Ben at the University of Vienna
Luke describes the gothic City Hall. Ian at the Burgtheater
A break at the Heuriger

Saturday: Matt at the Heldenplatz (Heroes square); the group at Michaelerplatz, in front of the Loos Haus and the Roman ruins
After a visit to the Austrian Gallery in Belvedere Palace
Sunday morning at Schönbrunn Palace
A tour of the Melk Abbey and Church (Mira directing Chris and Alana to the entrance)
A final stop in the Wachau district