

Mathematics Education Heritage

- The Ohio State University.

Left to right: Bud Trimble, Ph. D. advisor; Arnold Ross; Joe Crosswhite; Bert Waits; and, Jim Schultz. Also John Riner and Joan Leitzel, not shown. Photo taken in Columbus, Ohio, at Jim's Ph. D. graduation party, 1971.

- University of Georgia

Left to right: Les Steffe, Jim Schultz, Larry Hatfield, Elizabeth Platt, Jeremy Kilpatrick, Jim Wilson. Also Henry Edwards, and John Olive, not shown. Photo taken in Athens, Georgia, at Larry Hatfield's retirement party, 2009.

- Other mentors and esteemed colleagues.

In addition to the people pictured above, I am deeply indebted to (in chronological order with former affiliations) Steve Willoughby, University of Wisconsin; John Marita, Homestead High School, Mequon, Wisconsin; John LeBlanc, Indiana University; Glenda Lappan and Lauren Woodby, Michigan State University; Alice Hart, University of Chicago at Chicago Circle; Steve Meiring, Ohio Department of Education; Zalman Usiskin and Max Bell, University of Chicago; Rheta Rubenstein, Renaissance High School, Detroit; Bill Burger, Oregon State University; Roger Nelsen, Lewis & Clark College; Jane Barnard, Armstrong State College; Natalie Jakucyn, Glenbrook South High School, Illinois; Bernhard Kutzler and Josef Böhm, Austrian Center for Didactics of Computer Algebra; Craig Howley and Sandra Turner, Ohio University; and, many others.

I am very proud of my many students, especially those mentioned below:

- Ph. D. Advisees at Ohio University.

Mike Waters, Hala Al-Shawa, Faisal Al-Qurashi, Brian Johnson, Abdullah Almekbel, Norma Noguera. Also Farouq Almeqdai, not shown.

- Other Selected Students.

Tara Windle, Linda Kazee, Jim Kozman, Doug Roberts, Mike Krach, Debra Rucker, Endang Ruseffendi, Victor Bujan (The Ohio State University); Steve Viktora (University of Chicago); David Barnes (University of Georgia); Corey Bobby, Todd Edwards, Valerie Blom, Aslihan Osmanoglu, Ali Ikiz, Ahmed Amihere, James Adabor (Ohio University).